Boswell Man Arrested Following Jenner Township Shooting

Jenner Township, PA – Troopers yesterday arrested a Boswell man accused of shooting his father during an altercation at a residence in Somerset County.

Mason Shawn Jack, 20, was charged with felony counts of aggravated assault, misdemeanor counts of simple assault, and a summary count of harassment. Charges were filed before Magisterial District Judge Susan Mankamyer.

Jack was arraigned today and was remanded to the Somerset County Prison in lieu of $50,000 monetary bail.

On October 11, 2023 at approximately 2:07 p.m., members of the Troop A, Somerset Patrol and Criminal Investigation Units responded to a residence along Demarco Road in Jenner Township upon report of a shooting that occurred during a domestic-related altercation.

Upon arrival, troopers located a 47-year-old male, who was found to have sustained a gunshot wound to his stomach area. Life-saving measures were administered on-scene and the man was transported by Somerset Area EMS and MedStar to Conemaugh Memorial Medical Center.

In the course of the investigation, troopers determined that Jack and his father, the 47-year-old male, were involved in a physical altercation at the residence. During this altercation, Jack fired a single shot from a .357 magnum revolver, which struck his father in the stomach area.

A preliminary hearing is scheduled for October 18 at 10:00 a.m.
